BURT'S BEES RECYCLABLE PACKAGING

- Our Packaging, on average, is 52% Post-Consumer Recycled (PCR*) content.
- We avoid over-packaging, limit mixed materials and use innovative recycled materials whenever possible.
- We choose high-integrity materials that are more readily recyclable. (Including aluminum, steel, paper, glass & plastics like PETE, HDPE and PP, with as much PCR* as possible.)

*PCR plastic has already served its original purpose and has been recycled.

Burt's Bees® Recycle on Us
RECYCLING PROGRAM

When you are finished using a Burt's Bees® product send its packaging to TerraCycle® to be recycled.

WHAT IS TERRACYCLE®?

TerraCycle® is a social enterprise that Burt's Bees® is working with to offer consumers a free recycling program for our personal care, lip care and beauty care packaging.

Once waste is collected from consumers the waste is broken down and separated by material. The material is either reused in other countries around the world, upcycled into unique products by creating items of higher value using discarded objects, recycled and molded into a variety of new products or composted into rich organic materials used as industrial fertilizers.
